Wyoming Department of Health
Commit to your health.

Presumptive Eligibility for Pregnant Women

equalitycare
WYOMING MEDICAID

Qualified Provider Fact Sheet

What is Presumptive Eligibility?

Presumptive Eligibility (PE) is a Medicaid option which is designed to improve pregnant women's access to temporary outpatient services while their eligibility for Medicaid benefits is determined.

What is the Qualified Provider role in the PE program?

- Determine eligibility for the PE program using a simple web-based PE Application.
- Assist the pregnant woman in completing the Healthcare Coverage Application for regular Medicaid.
- Refer the pregnant woman to other available services.

Who can be a Qualified Provider?

- Public Health Nursing Offices
- Physician Offices
- Indian Health Services
- Clinics
- Qualified providers must enroll with EqualityCare and complete PE training

What services are covered under the PE program?

- Outpatient services

What services are not covered under the PE program?

- Labor and delivery
- Inpatient care

What is the Eligibility Criteria?

- Pregnancy
- Wyoming residency
- U.S. Citizenship
- Social Security number
- Gross family income cannot exceed 133% of the Federal Poverty Level

How long is the eligibility period?

- From the date of application until the last day of the following month.
- PE is limited to one period of eligibility per pregnancy.

Organizations interested in becoming a QP should fax requests to:
EqualityCare-PE
307-777-6964