

News from the Wyoming Department of Health

Monday, August 7, 2006

Emergency Services Office Schedules Trauma Conference

CHEYENNE –The Wyoming Department of Health’s Office of Emergency Services has scheduled its 36th Annual Wyoming Trauma Conference for August 24 – 27 in Cheyenne.

As a conference highlight, actor Randolph Mantooth, who played “Johnny Gage” on the television show “Emergency,” has been scheduled as this year’s guest banquet speaker.

Nationally known EMS speakers Dave “The Airbag Detective” Long, Mike Grill, Bill Justice, Mike Smith and Paul Werfel are among the scheduled session presenters. Dr. Brent Sherard, Wyoming Department of Health director, Senator Pat Aullman from Thayne, and Representative Tom Lubnau from Gillette will offer remarks to open each day of the conference.

State Auditor Max Maxfield will present the Governor’s Physician Medical Director of the Year and the Pete Vase Medic of the Year awards during the Saturday evening banquet. Also included as part of this year’s banquet will be a Table of Honor Ceremony recognizing EMS personnel who have passed on after serving Wyoming’s communities.

Most conference sessions will be held at the Little America Hotel and Resort. Pre-conference classes are planned for August 24.

For more information about the conference, please contact the Office of Emergency Services at 307-777-7955.

####